November 2008

Copgrove Village Hall at Staveley on Friday 10th October was the venue for the Society to present an evening of family fun and magic.

It is amazing in itself that the Society produced nine members to entertain and we received a contribution of over £100 to our own funds.

Here we see our President, Bob McBratney, introducing the evening to the audience who were most impressed.

Clive Cullum welcomed everyone at the door with Young Charlie, which was a nice touch particularly for the youngsters.

Clive has shortly to go into hospital and we all wish him well for a speedy recovery.

Pictures of other performers on a separate sheet.

We now have quite a few forward dates for your dairy.

Monday 17th November at 8.00 p.m. "Impromptu Magic"

Friday 5th December at 7.00 p.m. Christmas entertainment for the Harlow Community.
Brian, Bob, David, Jim, Mike, Rex and Stevie have all volunteered to appear.

Access to the venue from 5.30 p.m. to set-up

Monday 15th December at 8.00 p.m. "Comedy Magic "

Bob McBratney is looking into the possibility of a Christmas (Anniversary) Dinner.

Stevie "B" stage managed a charity show at Skipton recently, where Mike Coyne was one of the main attractions.

Our members do get around!

A few subs remain unpaid. Please expedite!
