September 2008

My how the year goes by!

At last we have our Website back and a new Webmaster, Jim Ward. Several years ago Keith Meddings created our first website - to be recreated by George Pickard and, more recently, Henry Norris. It is a taxing task and we are indebted to these members for their time and commitment. Thank you.

The new site is www.harrogatesocietyofmagicians.com

The most essential point of having a website is to keep it up to date - and this we must aim to do as it reflects badly on the Society if it is allowed to drift.

The August meeting produced some most entertaining LIQUID magic, some unseen before.

Anyone for tea at Bettys?

Brian was serving coffee for two only - with sugar too!

Not Moses but Bob separating the sand from the water - and coloured at that.

Continuing the biblical theme - Clive finding water in the desert.
